SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

How Mrs. Reed of Peoria, Ill., Escaped The Surgeon's Knife.

Peoria, Ill.—"I wish to let every one know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. For two years I suffered. The doctor said I had a tumor and the only remedy was the surgeon's knife. My mother bought me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today I am a well and healthy woman. For months I suffered from inflammation, and your Sanative Wash relieved me. I am glad to tell anyone what your medicines have done for me. You can use my testimonial in any way you wish, and I will be glad to answer letters."—Mrs. CHRISTINA REED, 105 Mount St., Peoria, Ill.

Mrs. Lynch Also Avoided Operation.
Jessup, Pa.—"After the birth of my fourth child, I had severe organic inflammation. I would have such terrible pains that it did not seem as though I could stand it. This kept up for three long months, until two doctors decided that an operation was needed. Then one of my friends recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and after taking it for two months I was a well woman."—Mrs. JOSEPH A. LYNCH, Jessup, Pa.

Women who suffer from female ills should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, one of the most successful remedies the world has ever known, before submitting to a surgical operation.

HILO FOURTH WILL BE LIVELY

Starts with Aquatic Events and Ends with Pugilism and Theatricals

[Special Correspondence, Star-Bulletin.]
HILO, July 1.—Everything is now ready for celebrating the Fourth of July in the usual manner here. The only thing that has been dropped is the Floral Parade. The committee in charge of this reported that there was not enough interest being taken in it to warrant having it on the list.

Starting at eight o'clock in the morning several aquatic events will be pulled off. These include sampan and canoe races and various swimming events. By the time these are over the day will go out for the literary exercises which are to be held at Moehau park.

Bernard Kelekolio, the Hilo Boy Orator, will read the Declaration of Independence, Mrs. W. S. Terry a poem, and Judge William L. Whitney deliver the oration.

At half past ten o'clock there will start the sports program which will last night on through the morning until it is time for Company D of the National Guard to make the national salute.

At eleven o'clock a start will be made between teams representing Honolulu and Hilo for the soccer supremacy of the islands. Later in the day baseball teams representing the two islands will cross bats and following that the horse races will be held. This will wind up the events for the day and give a spell until dinner is over.

For the evening there is the fight between de Mello and a Honolulu boy, the Juvenile Bostons at the Gaity theatre and the big display of fireworks followed by the water carnival when the decorated sampans will float across the bay all lit up.

In spite of the counter attractions in Honolulu we are expecting a crowd from that city to be here on the Fourth and will be waiting for them on the docks Thursday morning with the glad hand extended.

AUDUBON

By GEORGE FITCH

The pinnacles of fame have become pretty well crowded during the last forty-two centuries and for many years it has been almost impossible to discover one which is not crowded with gentlemen who have swarmed up out of obscurity and attached themselves to history with grips which even death and reform cannot shake.

The encyclopedias are congested with the records of men who have become famous by heaving their way through the enemy or by constructing melodious and durable poetry or by penning breathless romances, or by caraying the same congressional district twelve times in succession. Men have hoisted themselves out of the city directory and into "Who's Who" by hundreds of methods. They have devised new religions and have been barbecued in the interests of the same. They have fought Indians and grafters. They have invented sewing machines, steam engines and airships. Men have risen to immortal fame on the wings of faith, cherubim and monoplanes, but only one man has risen very far on the wings of birds. Audubon is about as famous as any of the rest and adopted this novel process long before Wilbur Wright was born.

Audubon was born in Louisiana, May 4th, 1780, and when he set out to break into the hall of fame he found that all of the best known names were in use. Besides he didn't know how to use them. He couldn't fight, he couldn't write poetry, he couldn't carry a precept, let alone a state, and he could not invent rotary gasoline engines nor non-refilling bottles. The case seemed hopeless. But Audubon was no ordinary man. And when a man isn't ordinary, he can't be stopped by ordinary means. Every morning Audubon was awakened in his Louisiana home by 97 varieties of birds. This gave him an idea. Instead of shooting them, he resolved to introduce the birds of America to the American people.

It took Audubon many years to do this, but he finally accomplished the task in several large quarto volumes beautifully illustrated. When he had finished, the birds of America were better known than the poets, and Audubon was balanced on a large and commodious pinnacle all by himself. This teaches those of us who are still unfamous and are inclined to law it to still competition, that there is more than one way to rise—and that when the elevator is not running the resourceful man will try the lightning rod.

AN OPEN SECRET.

Many ask the reason for the continued and increasing demand for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The secret is that it never fails to give relief. The middle-aged men of today remember it as the remedy given them by their mothers for cramp colic and dysentery when they were children and its reputation as a positive cure for such ailments is still maintained. No remedy has ever been produced that is its equal for the prompt relief of pain. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaii.
